

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Where is the FCC right now, what are you doing about this? Who pays you? Is it Sinclair Broadcasting? I believe my tax dollars pay you....I need to be reassured on this.

Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Not the Republican party. I do not choose to have my air waves used in this manner, when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
